SWH Welcomes News Students!! (Finally!)

New school year in Cambodia started in October, but the high school seniors are finally starting to register for universities now. This school year, we have three new students joining Susanna Wesley House in Phnom Penh and one male student who will be financially supported by us. And here they are!

Sreyoun Eang (19 yrs) is from the province of Kampong Thom. She wants to study Khmer literature and become a teacher. Her biggest prayer request is for the safety of her mother who is currently working in Thailand. She is excited for this new opportunity and journey waiting for her through SWH!

Sophea Ken (19 yrs) is from the province of Takeo. She aspires to become a flight attendant in the future. For now, she wants to major in tourism and broaden her knowledge about travel industry. She asks for prayer for her mother's health as she will be alone when Sophea comes to Phnom Penh for her university studies.

Minea Ken (20 yrs) is from the province of Takeo. Her parents are divorced, and she lives with her mother. She wants to major in tourism with focus on Chinese language. She is already able to speak some Chinese. We look forward to learning Chinese from her in the future!

Thon Thoeun (19 yrs) is from the province of Kampong Thom. Because SWH is a woman's dorm, we did not consider him as a candidate for our scholarship.

However, his desire for education was so strong that we have found a men's dorm for Thon in Phnom Penh and will be financially supporting him. He wants to study agriculture and support his parents through becoming a professional farmer.

New English Classes for SWH Students!

Every Saturday and Sunday morning (@ 9:00 am), the students at SWH are excited because we have finally started English classes (this class is funded by Shine Project - a new project GBGM in Cambodia is launching to offer vocational training for young women who are middle school and high school dropouts). Our teacher is Miss Haeun Kim. She is a daughter of missionaries in Cambodia and brought to Cambodia at a young age of two. Since then, she has lived in Cambodia and went to international schools. She is fluent in Khmer, English, and Korean! The focus of the English class will be conversational in order to prepare our SWH students to be more competitive when they graduate and enter into the job market.

Youlika Vann Is Done with School!!!

Youlika has finished her university education! We are so excited for her! Youlika has been an awesome role model to the students at SWH and an indispensable assistant to the leaders of SWH. Although there has not been an official graduation yet, she is done defending her thesis and officially out of school. In fact, she is hired by GBGM office in Cambodia as the administrative assistant for Shine Project, a new project that has been launched. She will be a great role model to many young women who will participate in Shine Project as they receive job training to improve their lives. Please pray for Youlika to continue to be used for God and God's people!
