SWH Students Show Kindness to a Blind Kitten!

About three weeks ago, some of the students could hear a desperate cry of a kitten from outside of their residence. Even when they could've ignored the cry and just go about their business, the students began to search for the place where the sound was coming from. After searching around the vicinity of their residence, they found a small kitten crying out in desperation in a bush. It seemed scared and frail and dirty. The students took the kitten in, washed it, and fed it. But soon, they realized that something was wrong with the kitten.

Although it was responding well to sounds, it kept bumping into things in the room. They discovered that the kitten could not see!

Several of the students took great effort to take care of the kitten, now named Minnie. In fact, she has become the “princess” of SWH. The students even made a cage for Minnie so that she doesn't fall off the stairs when no one is able to watch her (she fell a few times with no serious injuries).

We commend the students for having a kind and merciful heart. With what little they have, they're willing to share to take care of Minnie, who was abandoned by her own kind. God is love, and we will also show love to all things in our lives!

No Improvement in COVID-19 Situation

In just the month of July, there were 27,000 new cases of COVID-19 in Cambodia for total of 77,243 cases. On top of there being no signs of respite in the number of cases, the Ministry of Health is quite concerned about the cases of imported Delta variant from Thailand. There have also been increase in deaths due to COVID-19 which have been adding on to the overall fear in the nation. However, despite some being fearful, there are still too many who take this virus lightly and do not adhere to the rules of the government. On July 28, 2021, the Cambodia government announced that it will close all of the eight borders to Thailand for two weeks. In addition, it reinstated curfew (9:00 pm-3:00am) and prohibited all dine-in at restaurants for two weeks as well. Please continue to pray for Cambodia

Some Students Visit Home in Kampong Thom

Due to COVID-19, many students have not been able to visit their families back home (although some students have gone home since the major outbreak). This week, we allowed some students to visit home over the weekend. We will take extra precautions when they return. We pray for happy family reunion for them!
