

Celebrating the Second Birthday of Nine of Our Students!

April 3, 2022 marked a very important day for all of us at SWH, specially for 9 of our students as they received the water baptism at Prek Toal Methodist Church, professing their faith in Christ. We were overwhelmed with joy and so blessed to see their growth in Christ and their love for the Lord as they professed their faith in front of the church.

Khmer New Year and the Holy week!

April was an eventful month as we celebrated the Khmer New Year which falls on the same days as the Holy Week. Our dorm was empty for the week as all students went home. We could, however, have a Khmer New Year celebration at Church before the big holiday and also a very competitive Easter Egg hunt and prayer the day we got back to the dorm!

The SWH students also celebrated with the Global Missionaries and Global Mission Fellows of the Asia Region on their commissioning day. Two of our students shared their testimonies and all the SWH students led Khmer dances over dinner at the Mekong River.
