Update on Rady Hoy

From September 24-26, Cambodia celebrated Pchum Ben which is equivalent to Thanksgiving in the States. Many people returned to their hometown to celebrate with family. We have requested the pastor serving in Kampong Thom and some of our students who have returned home in Kampong Thom to visit Rady Hoy's family with gifts provided by us. Her condition has obviously worsened. She is not able to intake much food and seems to be hallucinating a lot. The students who visited were happy when Rady was still able to recognize their voices. Pastor shared the Good News with Rady and her family. Please pray for her as the family continues to insist on keeping her at home while inviting village healers to come and "pray" for her.

Student Interview

This month, we have interviewed a student to help you get a more personal view of our students. Vuochchy is finishing up her third year studying business administration. At a very young age, an oil lamp fell on Vuochchy and left a big scar on her face. Growing up with such a visible scar on the face, she always felt self-conscious and defensive. We're happy to report that now, Vuochchy is one of the most optimistic and helpful students at the dorm who has taken on the job of being "a big sister" to her juniors. We are so very proud of her! (Vuochchy Phai link)
